

As a paying customer on the XM satellite network, I enjoy the valuable service that they offer with 24 hour per day traffic and weather. I urge the FCC to make local broadcasters compete with their own offering.